Eye-catching appeal with exceptional architectural design

Set to become one of Villawood's premier landmarks, Parklane Residences is the third chapter of an impressive investment into Villawood by Developer ABA Group. Parklane offers sophisticated interiors and functional apartment layouts. Designed by award-winning architect Tony Owen, the bold architecture offers a multi-edge façade, stylish glass balconies and an artfully selected colour scheme that compliments the surrounding environment.

Situated in Villawood's most central location, Parklane Residences elevated outlook ensures each apartment is uniquely enhanced by an abundance of natural light and scenic district views of Villawood's leafy parklands. The building's generous balconies present an enticing combination of both indoor and outdoor living.

Through careful selection of materials and attention to detail, Parklane Residences is soon to become amongst the most recognisable and popular buildings in the Greater Western Sydney region. The luxurious combination of glass, concrete and metal complemented by quality interior finishes creates a beautifully crafted aesthetic that sets a new benchmark for urban living.

Re-defining urban living

Parklane Residences interiors were designed by the highly acclaimed architect Tony Owen, who is responsible for some of Sydney's most luxurious properties. Boasting stylishly presented interiors and quality finishes throughout, each apartment is designed to enhance natural light, space and the sensational views on offer.

Meticulously designed, the kitchen features stone benches complemented by stainless steel appliances. Quality tiles flooring optimize the use of both space and functionality while seamlessly integrating living and dining spaces. Kitchens showcase an elegant dark colour scheme with contemporary line and exceptional aesthetics of each.

Vibrant vicinity in a diverse cultural hub.

Overlooking Villawood's central district, Parklane Residences offers the best of Western Sydney living, with plenty of amenities at your doorstep. Featuring secure underground parking and direct building access, every day will be a convenient, relaxed and comfortable lifestyle experience.

Just a short stroll will see you in Villawood's lively and diverse cultural hub, offering restaurants, cafes, and the rich history of one of Australia's oldest urban settlements. On the weekend, visit beautiful parklands or utilise the excellent transport facilities at your disposal and enjoy local favourites including The Wran Leisure Centre, Thurina Park or Westfield Parramatta.

The future of Villawood

The Villawood Town Centre DCP (Development Control Plan) was recently fast-tracked through the State Government's Planning System Acceleration Program to increase Villawood's:

- Connectivity – transport facilities including the railway line, bus services and car park facilities.
- Business and Leisure – a town centre supporting and facilitating retailing and commercial activity.
- Increase population and opportunities for apartments and mixed use precincts.
- The establishment of a village square along Villawood Place will revitalise the town centre, increase surrounding open space, increase connectivity between the pedestrian network and new shop-top housing, complete with active grounds, widened footpaths and urban furniture.
